Mt John Historic Homestead

Originally built in 1911, The Mount John Homestead has recently been renovated and made available as a wonderful example of Tekapo accommodation for those passionate for the region and its history. Beautiful exposed rimu floors are throughout the historic building. An original collection of art by a local artist and an archive of local photos are displayed throughout the rooms. The homestead is also available for special occasions such as weddings, family reunions and funeral wakes. A minimum booking of 2 nights applies to accommodation use. Your hosts are Amanda, Karen and Andrew Simpson
